

TCRWP Summer School Subscriptions Terms and Conditions

- Subscriptions may not be shared. Each teacher must have an individual subscription to access and teach the curriculum.
- Subscriptions are 365 days and begin on the date of purchase and are not returnable.
- The summer school curriculum requires access to trade books. Trade book packs, including titles referenced for instruction, are available for purchase through Heinemann. In addition, students will need access to robust classroom libraries. See the Required and Recommended Trade Book List for more information.
- Heinemann Customer Service / Technical Support will assist schools and districts with requests to correct teacher registration errors only if those requests are received within one week of activation.
